MR. AND MRS. W. S. COTTRELL announce the marriage, on Wednesday, of their daughter, Alma Clare, to Arthur Williamson Gunther, of Lexington, Ky. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Gerald Culbertson, in the home of the bride, 417 North Thirty-second Street. Mr. and Mrs. Gunther left on the 8:15 train for Florida and the South, after which they will return to Richmond for a few days, and later will make their home in Portsmouth, O.

Russell-Kable. Miss Cornelia Messie Kable and Captain Teal Gervin Russell were married on Wednesday last at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kable, on Prospect Street, Staunton, Rev. A. M. Fraser, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Messie Kirby, as maid of honor, and the groom's best man was W. D. Roper, of South Carolina. She was given in marriage by her father.

Her wedding gown was of white crepe meton, lace-trimmed, and she carried Bride roses. Her maid of honor wore pink messaline and carried pink roses.

An informal reception followed the ceremony, and when the bride's cake was cut, the ring went to Miss Cornelia Strout, the thimble to Miss Beattie Hoge, and the dime to Miss Theresa Halslip.

Punch was served by Misses Katie and Beattie Hoge, Janet Bear and Salda King.

Captain and Mrs. Russell are now at Atlantic City, and will later go to New York, and later visit in South Carolina. They will make their home in Staunton, Captain Russell being connected with the Staunton Military Academy.

Country Club Opened Yesterday. Yesterday afternoon and evening the opening reception was held in the Country Club of the Young Women's Christian Association, and a charming time was spent by all who called at the attractive little cottage at 513 Fifth Avenue, Chestnut Hill.

A number of prominent women were on the reception committee, including the board of directors of the association, with the special committee of entertainment, and several young girls assisted in serving dainty refreshments.

The club has proved a most successful feature of the new association plans, and young women who must spend the warm months in the city have readily grasped the idea of patronizing it.

Mrs. Fleet is to be the matron, and it is open to all members and their friends.

In and Out of Town. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gordon and son have closed their home, 1007 West Avenue, and have gone to spend the summer in Waynesboro with Mrs. Gordon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Talbott.

Alex. W. Weddell, who has spent the last two years in Copenhagen as secretary of the American Legation, is visiting his family for a few weeks.

The many friends of Miss Grace Perkins, who has been quite ill at the residence of her grandmother, on West Franklin Street, will be glad to know that she is improving.

Miss Susie Lipscomb, of North Lombardy Street, is attending the annual at Randolph-Macon College.

Mrs. J. C. Arthur and children are spending some time at the Brandon Hotel, Basic City.

Mrs. Garrett Wall and daughter, Miss Martha Wall, will spend some time at Atlantic City. Miss Wall entertained a theatre party recently in honor of Miss Irene Langhorne Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, who was the house guest of Miss Nancy Perkins for several days last week. Miss Perkins accompanied little Miss Gibson back to New York.

Miss Nell Binford has returned to Petersburg after attending the Randolph-Macon annual, where she was the house guest of Miss Anna Hunter.
